

Encouraging Churches to pursue the Great Commission with vision, passion and faithfulness

The Commitment

I WILL attend all GCCI meetings unless hindered by circumstances beyond my control.

I WILL contact the members of my cohort weekly for prayer and encouragement unless hindered by circumstances beyond my control.

I WILL spend an hour a day with God unless hindered by circumstances beyond my control.

I WILL make the Great Commission a priority in my life, seeking to share my faith, enlist and equip disciples, and pray for world evangelization.

I WILL make a commitment to conduct on-going assessment in my life, in my relationships, and in my church.

I WILL seek to set specific, challenging goals in my ministry and will work hard to achieve them.

I WILL engage in mutual accountability, holding myself and others to high standards, willing to offer reproof and to be reproofed.
